

DAILY NEWS.

SATURDAY MORNING, AUGUST 26, 1865.

LOCAL MATTERS.

TO OUR CITY SUBSCRIBERS.—We would be thankful if there is any failure on the part of our carriers to deliver the DAILY NEWS, if our city subscribers would give us immediate notice. Every effort on our part will be made to secure an early delivery, and if the carriers fail in doing their duty, we hope to be immediately informed of it.

ELECTION NOTICE.—We call the attention of all concerned to this document, which appears in the issue of to-day.

NORTHEASTERN RAILROAD.—By reference to our advertising columns, it will be seen that the schedule of the Passenger Trains is changed from Monday next.

INQUESTS.—A Coroner's Inquest was held yesterday, at No. 5 Lucas-street, on the body of J. Boineast (colored). Verdict of the Jury—"Death from intermittent fever."

An Inquest was also held at No. 12 Charlotte-street, on the body of Elsey Martin (colored). Verdict of the Jury—"Death from diphtheria."

FROM LIVERPOOL.—The first arrival at this port, from Europe, since the cessation of hostilities, took place yesterday, by the coming into port of the British barque Melbourne, in forty-eight days from Liverpool. Her cargo consisted of two hundred and three tons coal, to the Gas Company, and other merchandise, consigned to Messrs. Gibbs & Co.

NEW BUILDING.—A. F. RAVENEL, Esq., President of the Northeastern Railroad Company, has engaged the services of Mr. JAMES P. EARLE, one of our well known contractors, to erect a building for a Depot for the Northeastern Railroad Company, on the foundation of the structure destroyed by fire in February last. They purpose in the future to erect a second edifice to the eastward of the old building, which is intended to be a more commodious and convenient Depot, which will be exclusively used for passengers.

A SOLDIER'S FORTUNE.—BLOXBY is an old soldier. In '36 he went to Florida to fight the Indians. He never fought. He proceeded no further than St. Augustine, where he protected the inhabitants. They looked upon him as the defender of their soil and honor, and treated him as such. He accepted their treats.

He tells us why he never fought. The Indians never came in his way, and he wisely never went in theirs. It saved bloodshed. For a time the rude floor was his bed. The people sent him tick. He lived on tick.

He was ordered home. He arrived and put up at a hotel, expecting to be feted. He was footed. He was in a dilapidated state. The ladies saw him. His clothes were partly in tears. The females all in tears. Some of them were soon paired. His inexpressibles were not repaired. He was fed on beef and mustered out. His arms were taken from him. His legs were left. They were a support in extremity. He cares not for war as long as a piece of them remains.

JOHN B. TOONT.—This gentleman, who has the best things of life in his establishment, and retails them at lowest prices, advertises this morning an assortment of the finest kind.

WE DESIRE to call attention to Order No. 79, from General BENNETT, in which, under conditions, several State officers are to resume their functions.
